UNITED STATES CITY DESPATCH OFFICE, New-York, 25th August, 1842.

To the Editor of The Tribune : Sir,-Several misstatements on the subject of the late "City Despatch Post," under my management, having tately appeared in the newspapers, accompanied by the most unfounded allegations against the Postmaster of this city and the Post Office Department generally, I trust your sense of justice will induce you to publish this communica tion, which, by a plain unvarnished statement of facts, will show that so far from any improper motives having prompted the Department or the Postmaster, the whole matter has been constructed solely with a view to the further accommodation of the public, and in a manner the most theral and most satisfactory to all' parties concerned in the late "City Despatch Post."

The proprietors of the late "City Despatch Post" having been informed of the desire of the Postmaster General to connect the system with the post office, I waited upon John Lorimer Graham, Esq., P. M., and tendered to him the properties of the establishment, which up to that time had not more than paid its current expenses.

It was thought by uniting the penny letters in the pos office with those of the Despatch Post, that with the addi foral security it would offer to the public, it might be well sistained and permanency given to a regular delivery three timet a day throughout the city.

The terms offered by me to the Postmaster for the purthase of the properties of the establishment as well as a tender of my own services to superintend the department were met with the most liberal spirit, and throughout every part of the transaction nathing was introduced, or has since been done, inconsistent with the public good. All the old carriers who were citizens of the United States were reappointed in order to secure their experience, notwithstanding the numerous applications which bad been made by others supported by the first recommendations.

The utter absurdity of the charge that extensive political influence is to be secured by the appointment of a great number of carriers is this department will appear, when the public are assured that the whole number of persons necessary to be employed to carry and collect the letters does not exceed TWELVE

In conclusion I would briefly state my belief, that neither the transportation of mails nor the management of a City Post, can be rendered subservient to private enterprise as a matter of profit, and secure at the same time an equaamount of accommodation to the public. In the one case although many competitors would be found to perform the duty (perhaps equally as well) throughout the more populous parts of this vast continent, hundreds of places would be left where it would be impossible for private enterprise to reach. In the other case the same difficulty exists in the distribution of city letters, where carriers traveres the outskirts of our sity three times a day, collecting postage insufficient to pay the carriers' compensation, yet the accommodation to the public is both felt and admitted. It is the profitable and unprofitable united, that enables the post office system as a who'e to be carried out for the general advantage of the community, and it is only the Government that can emb; ace as undertaking of such vast account. ALEX. W. GREIG.

TP PACKAGE EXPRESSES -We apprehend our citizens are not even yet aware of the facilities afforded in every direction by the regular Expresses now in operation. A package of goods, money, or any thing else, may now be sent from this city from 2 to 590 miles East, North or South with assured certainty and despatch. We desire especially to speak now of that of Pomeroy & Co.'s between this city and Buffalo, conveying packages not only to every city and stopping-lace on the route, but also to parts farther West and to Canada. This is a great public convenience, and ought to be liberally sustained. Crawford Livingston, No. 2 Wall street, is the manager in this city.

North-Market just above State st., is among the excellent Hotels of that city. It is of moderate size, with display and charges in proportion, while every attention is paid to the comfort of its guests. Gentlemen passing a few days in Albany, and having no other preference, will find the location very central and convenent.

"To the Public-Caution."—Under this head, the proprietor of Kolmstock's Vermiluge, has just seen an attack of Messrs. Fahnestock & Co., on the agents, which seems quite uncalled for, as the very notice Fahnestock & Co., have quoted in part only reads as follows:

"Though Fuhnestock's is supposed to be the same article—the one that has become known to you though the advertisement, should be used in justice to the proprietors," thereby disclaiming any intention to benefit by the advertisements of Fahnestock & Co. and in fact recommending persons to that article instead of Kolmstock's where known to them through their advertisements. Neither the bottle- or the wrappers are the same as Fahnestock's, though the proprietor is assured that the contents are the same, he has no prietor is assured that the contents are the same; he has no wish to sell it on the reputation of Fahnestock's, and has so cautioned on the wrappers that no one can mistake the one for the other—but wishes his to stand alone on its own meris the other-but wisces his to stand alone of its own the list and assures the public that it is a genuine article that will eradicate worms with a facility truly astonishing. regular business has never been attempted in this city. In boston and other cities most of the stocks are disposed of at public sale. This mode of transacting business presents adantages over the present custom. At auction lealers in stocks can always be present and judge for them-leves whether the saies are fairly conducted or not, a privirege of which they are now deprived.

The seller will have to ray no more commission than the regular brokerage, and the purchaser will by attending to the sale save the amount of a brokerage.

The unmerous kinds of stock offered in this market that renot puoted on the books of the brokers, and therefore or rendered unsatable, will by the adoption of this plan can be the bolder to present them favorably before the pub-c through the advertisement of the auctioneer. au 20
